

Indianapolis Alumnae Panhellenic

2017 – 2018 Outstanding Senior Application

The Indianapolis Alumnae Panhellenic (IAP), founded in 1914, is an association of post collegiate women in the greater Indianapolis Metropolitan area, dedicated to development of character and the opportunity of wide and wise human service through mutual respect. The Indianapolis Alumnae Panhellenic delegates seek to honor and recognize exceptional achievement and participation in chapter, campus and community activities. IAP's Outstanding Senior Greek Woman award also gives the opportunity to encourage and promote positive role models for all Greek women in our communities.

One individual will be selected from all Indiana colleges and universities. The winner will receive a gift and a $500 check from the Indianapolis Alumnae Panhellenic, along with recognition on her campus and in the local media.

IAP encourages nominations as well as self-submitted applications for this award. The application/nomination form follows. There are two eligibility requirements for this award:

1. Applicant's home address is in the greater Indianapolis Metropolitan Area
Boone, Hamilton, Hancock, Hendricks, Johnson, Marion, Morgan and Shelby counties, and
2. Senior status in the fall of the 2017-2018 academic year at a college or university in Indiana.

All applications and nominations will be acknowledged. Completed applications must be received by April 21, 2018 contain all components of the application (please note the presentation of your packet and its completeness is a factor in the consideration). The winner will be notified in by the beginning of May and arrangements will be finalized at that time for the presentation of her award shortly thereafter. All questions and completed packets should be directed to Heather Carson via email, carson_heather@hotmail.com
